Nuit

it is you that forms the night arc across the sky so wide ur arch
the curve is not discernible, ur body studded with stars

swallow the white moon
birth the sun
deity of the night

arch over all existence
birth a million suns, sustainer of my life

they haven't forgotten u though today u are disguised as the celestial virgin that births the saviour of the world

how u ache for re-union with ur beloved
how i ache for our lost embrace

our joining would shatter worlds and rob existence of its tension

what was once joined and

separated
must be joined again
ur arc only a portion of the circle

i feel a warm rising
a golden disc
rising from the dead of night

swallow my essence
midnight blue,
Nuit

let it stir inside u
until u are ready to birth mighty Ra in a new day
