

The Invincible

international / poetry / post

they will tell u it's
a myth,
it doesn't exist

they will exhort u,
come to ur senses,
get real

if u persist they will summon specialists doctors and regulators
to purge truth
from ur being,
to instill fear

maintain ur position

hold fast to ur station
never waver,
fight for what u know
is right

u belong to the invincible,
an irresistible army,
a global force

it is they that fear
you
they go to great lengths to divide and separate u from each other
ur common ground,
ur seat of power

they would kill u (first)
if u refuse to leave
the ranks of that
which would see them
eradicated

hold fast,
together you are
