

Oz Labor: treacherous lying insular bitch and golden haired boy, Shorten

The most striking characteristic of today's Oz Labor Party is its very public INABILITY for DECISIVE EFFECTIVE ACTION -- and therein lies the underlying cause of Labor's demise.

Shorten and Gillard

Oz Labor is headed for a well earned slaughter at the next federal election, and for mine, to hell with the once proud WORKERS party of Australia that now sucks CORPORATE and Washington ARSE.

Regardless of who leads the Party to the slaughter it is finito for a very long time; Labor's recent history makes for very instructive political reading, with the emphasis on how NOT to do it!

Labor is a textbook case of insular politics, whether its of the narcissistic, treacherous or treasonous variety is irrelevant, veering hard right -- a position already occupied by the conservatives -- and dumping a political support base is political suicide on a grand scale, but to follow that up with continued self-absorption (internal conflict) and MORE gross insularity, only serves to infuriate what is left of Labor voters.

Gillard signalled her corporate and US servile allegiances while she was deputy to Rudd, long before the sickening obsequious speech she delivered to the US Congress. She is a known corporate-serving (carbon TAX) treasonous quantity. Rudd of course, a Murdoch anointed selectee, is the most severely pathologically disturbed (NPD) leader in Oz political history, notwithstanding Bob Hawke and his towering ego. However, all today's negative Labor characteristics considered, the rot, in actuality, set in a long time before Rudd and Gillard.

It was Keating who sold Oz to Wall St for a farthing by floating our currency and allowing rogues and now proven criminal global bankers to virtually control the nation's wealth/FUTURE. Oz is now a financial colony thanks to Keating AND I would take this opportunity to AGAIN remind everyone that China's meteoric rise to superpower status is largely the result of maintaining a robust economic safety shield -- China NEVER relinquished control over its currency, much to the chagrin of Wall St and the Global Federal Reserve criminal Banking cartel -- HISTORY IS NOT BLIND!

What we are witnessing today is the RESULT of a long slide DOWNHILL and the consciousness it created in Labor's ranks -- specifically, self-serving tendencies at the expense of service to the community, which of course is a characteristic of narcissism, all Labor leaders since Whitlam were narcissists to greater or lesser destructive extent. And while you may imagine that Gillard is not in that category think again, she bathed in the fact that she was the first Australian female PM and even unwisely introduced gender issues into her divisive 'politics of the inept!' History will not be kind to Gillard for her extraordinary treachery to the electorate and her political colleagues, she is a hard-hearted, barren bitch who has put women's progress back decades in this country -- her remarkable insularity is something else again. All of it, unsurprisingly, adds up to ruin, failure and catastrophe. Oz does not look for career oriented leaders but leaders that effectively serve the best interests of the nation and the community -- REMEMBER?

Now consider, with assistance from the above historical perspective; is it surprising that Bill Shorten refuses to salvage what is left of the Party and save some of the seats of his embattled colleagues? You see how the new Labor disease persists, Shorten is thinking of HIMSELF not the Party, it's all about ME, ME, ME, ME, ME, isn't it Labor?

Though the fact remains; Shorten fails to appreciate, or is ill-advised, that he would actually enhance his career potential by making an effort to save the Party from total ruin -- people are watching and have instincts in that regard, if you don't believe me ask Rudd and Gillard!

If Shorten or another Labor hopeful makes the supreme effort while the ship is sinking PEOPLE will not forget that positive gesture, and in politics that is the highest currency available, MORONS!

Or alternatively, a decade or two in the political wilderness may wake Labor up to some political fundamentals. Finally, a suggestion I would like to make, based on my professional background, is to dump ALL the Party's 'strategists, PR and media consultants/advisers' -- what a pack of mental lepers, George Patton indeed, you fuckin' moron! Where did you find that idiot?
