The absurdity of a recent article published in the Guardian notwithstanding, we note the charge against two American imbeciles attempting to make and use an X-Ray weapon against enemies of Israel.

Two men were charged with, "conspiracy to provide support to terrorists," which, as we know in the USA, could carry indefinite detention penalties without the opportunity to challenge one's accusers - handy for a totalitarian state, BUT the issue here is that the 'law' is being enforced or utilized to charge and incarcerate people TODAY!

This law has been utilized to unjustly imprison people in Guantanamo Bay and render them secretly to other detention sites around the globe, where they are routinely TORTURED while the US turns its 'nod of approval head', the other way.

But have we all missed something as large as an elephant's dick up your idiotic, entranced asses? Yes, the elephant sitting next to you while you are being propagandized by your home 'entertainment' units! [O, why can't this Aussie rough be nice?]

WHY, why, WHY indeed? Simply because we are ALL aware of the 'heinous crime' of supporting 'terrorists', RIGHT? That 'law' of convenience has been applied for over a decade, to my limited knowledge. Well, guess what MORONS? Obama has recently announced that he would be arming Syrian rebel forces, which contain al-Qaeda and affiliates in its ranks! That dear readers and morons is a direct violation of the law and constitutes a crime, as it quite clearly is a manifest act and example of materially supporting terrorists and terrorism, doh!

So what are you waiting for? Go and DEMAND the arrest and indictment of Barack Hussein Obama, for supporting terrorists, which offense REMAINS in FLAGRANT breach of the law and carries an indefinite detention penalty! Now be aware that Obama and his DOJ will screw YOU with exactly that same law whenever he wishes, just consider yourselves lucky you didn't make his personal kill list!

We are aware from reading Alice's Adventures in the White House and from disgraced former President, Richard Nixon, that "it's legal when the President does it!" That means the SAME 'LAW' applies to you and the president is two distinct ways -- now put that illogic to your professors and the mad hatter for an answer.

Now go back to bed America, your government is still fucking you up the ass!

Fair dinkum, is there a larger population of morons and idiots outside America today?
