

The Oz Political Challenge -- the REAL choice

It was only yesterday that universally reviled, back-stabbing, lying and the most inept politician in Oz history actually made a Jesuit trained, pugilistic block-head look good and present as a viable alternative PM -- that is the effect of placing something so reviled and revolting before the public they would choose a no-talent, servile to big business, conservative in order to rid themselves of the presence of a treacherous, treasonous, lying, DESPISED, evil bitch!

Rudd with war criminal Obama

Now compare the Oz political circus today; 'do-nothing,' supreme 'narcissist,' 'photo-op,' Kevin Rudd, a known quantity -- now restored to his former position in sheer desperation -- makes Abbott look like an inept, policy devoid, political buffoon, which he ALWAYS WAS! Other than his infamous Doberman attacks on everything, there is nothing there! Gillard made Abbott look like a political Adonis something that is truly remarkable in itself, however, the Oz population now confronted with Abbott and Rudd as opponents, have instantly moved away from Abbott as the polls clearly indicate.

But the point is not lost I hope; the game here is American style politics in a box, or a flea circus in a jar. Der! Ar! Doh, which servile (to the same powers) political puppet should I vote for? Well, Aussies regard themselves as being more socially aware and educated than the mindless yanks so the answer should be obvious; we needn't play American style politics in a box, period!

Our democracy has not yet been subverted as has its American counterpart; Aussies have numerous VIABLE choices/options before them. The most viable is to VOTE REAL REPRESENTATIVE INDEPENDENTS that represent YOUR interests, into office at every election, State and Federal -- simple! Remember, it only takes half a dozen real independents in the House of Representatives and Senate to keep the ENTIRE PARLIAMENT HONEST!

The CORPORATE mass media will continue to play 'captured' flea circus politics for the most part, IGNORE IT -- choose an INDEPENDENT candidate that represents YOUR interests not a lying, puppet clown from the major parties!

Long live Oz democracy and the freedom to choose outside the Corporate box! We may well teach the dumb yanks what a REAL democracy looks like.

'Onya Oz!
