Unnatural Selection

> there is a star-spangled pestilence that plagues a peaceful world it spreads via those that submit to it or that do not actively resist it take note of those infected the carriers of this disease, they are the first that must be quarantined or purged they knowingly expose themselves to infection and would happily see the world stricken with perpetual war -- a symptom of the vile disease

it was not long ago minds were strong and healthy, an avoidable scourge would never have been tolerated or allowed to take a foothold but the plague strikes the feeble first then slowly infects until complacency is accepted as the norm, then it spreads chaos and destruction nothing good comes of filth it is the harbinger of death, decay and everything rotten it delights in killing the innocent children and simple defenceless folk going about their day it revels in unreason and inverts every good thing to create unrest instability, chaos and cruelty natural balance dictates that the longer a plague persists the greater the prospect of natural resistance already the numbers of immune increase until a critical point is reached, a point where an ineffective disease becomes irrelevant

"Unnatural Selection"

They'll laugh as they watch us fall The lucky don't care at all No chance for fate It's unnatural selection I want the truth

I'm hungry for some unrest I want to push this beyond a peaceful protest I wanna speak in a language that they'll understand

Dedication to a new age Is this the end of destruction and rampage? Another chance to erase then repeat it again

Counter balance this commotion We're not droplets in the ocean Ocean

They'll laugh as they watch us fall The lucky don't care at all No (Hey) chance (Hey) for fate (Hey) It's unnatural selection I want the truth

No religion or mind virus Is there a hope that the facts will ever find us? Just make sure that you're are looking out for number one

I'm hungry for some unrest Let's push this beyond a peaceful protest I wanna speak in a language that you will understand

Counter balance this commotion We're not droplets in the ocean Ocean They'll laugh as they watch us crawl The lucky don't share at all No (Hey) hope (Hey) for fate (Hey) It's a random chance selection I want the truth

Try to ride out the storm Whilst they'll make you believe They are the special ones (We have not been chosen)

Injustice is the norm You won't be the first And you know you won't be the last

Counter balance this commotion We're not droplets in the ocean Ocean, ocean, ocean

They'll laugh as they watch us fall And the lucky they don't care at all No (Hey) chance (Hey) for fate (Hey) It's unnatural selection I want the truth, I want the truth I want the truth, I want the truth
