

Attraction

international / poetry / post

there are many forms, my most favoured
is the deep, familiar
'i've known u
for a thousand years'
impression
when we've only just met

it's instantaneous casting pregnant glances penetrating visual exchanges and instinct pushing to fuck on the spot

but civilised protocols prohibit instantaneous copulation and substitute boring ritual bullshit and dreary game-playing so it was refreshing to have you spell it out

'all the better now ur here' and me doing my best to ensure my cock didn't explode out of my pants

[in these situations
there's a lot to be said for Neanderthal customs.] but all the same, we have known each other for a thousand years or more,

it's good to see u again!
