

Major Myths Busted by the most Unlikely ...

Can you guess, or are you so completely conditioned/brainwashed you can't see the nose on YOUR face?

Let's begin with an 'all-powerful superpower' -- the USA -- and all the associated myths and propaganda that this nation goes to huge expense and trouble to constantly promulgate (lest the spell is broken) namely that the U.S. is for the most part unassailable, unconquerable and unable to be successfully brought down/subverted! These core MYTHS are sold as 'givens' to the local and international community yet in reality (read on) they are profound LIES. The propaganda message is not only contained in the dominant discourse of propagandists and spin merchants but is also contained subliminally in secondary layers of discourse or the subtexts of most mainstream media discourse in the U.S. and allied vassal states.

Based on a foundation of lies, myths and self-deception relating to exceptionalism and 'above the law' status are easily sold to a mostly numb, passive, fearful and moronic public.

I need not resort to rhetorical tricks or other persuasive textual means to present two GLARING examples of America, 'superpower,' under siege.

A huge and effective attack from the most unexpected sources has been recorded but most missed the significance, the 'thundering silence' and subtlety of the attacks -- though the effect has not been diminished in any way. The RAMIFICATIONS of these assaults are yet to be felt but eventuate they must, as sure as day follows night. The criminal ruling elite that has hijacked U.S. democracy has taken two direct fatal hits to its soft underbelly!

Two insignificant citizens armed only with a conscience, moral values and an instinctive sense of justice and fair play -- that we ALL share -- have caused this 'superpower' to scamper in panicked damage control; of course I refer to Manning and Snowden, who, without the aid of pea-shooters or slingshots, have caused the U.S. president to chuck infantile tantrums and to order his entire diplomatic corps to seek reassurance from puppet allies and vassal States.

To say that Manning and Snowden have weakened the USA is understatement, as the consequences of their actions are only now beginning to make their INDELIBLE mark on GLOBAL society and history.

All large and overextended empires fall from within and the USA is NO EXCEPTION -- external attacks are symptomatic, not causal.

So the next time you detect feeble propaganda or intimations of invincibility and a 'might is right' ideology, think of one diminutive, tortured and abused poof that forced the world's greatest superpower to PUBLICLY CONVICT ITSELF in the most LUDICROUS and transparently CORRUPT, PARTIAL 'trial' in MODERN HISTORY! And then to that add the international repercussions of the revelations of a humble computer technician and you may get a taste of things to come!

DEMOCRACY will be RESTORED and JUSTICE will be SERVED.

[Greetz to all the crewz and to the entire global, BORDERLESS, NATIONLESS, UNDERGROUND -- WE have ALREADY WON!]

Not altogether true, not altogether false!
