

The Measure of British Servility

David Cameron, puppet politician to the plutocrats, recently issued a threat to The Guardian UK to either destroy the Snowden material or hand it over to the authorities. The world press was in a uproar, feeble though it was, regarding press freedoms etc; sometimes one wonders where these people have been for the past decade. The world has been under severe attack from wealthy minority interests for years, liberties and freedoms have been eroded at blinding speed, yet no-one detected a rallying cry from the mass media to preserve our hard won rights and fight against the evil that is destroying our way of life. So NOW we are outraged? For fuck's sake go back to bed!

A duck shoot of criminal lackeys

It WAS the press' duty and responsibility to alert the public to all injustices and all attacks on democracy as they OCCURRED but this the mass media clearly FAILED TO DO -- the job has been left to independent journalists and the alternative media.

Why hasn't the mainstream press been screaming for Tony Blair's arrest for (Iraq) war crimes along with his cohorts in crime, Bush and Howard, the coalition of willing criminals? Tony Blair is a known mass murderer and homicidal sociopath but no mainstream CAMPAIGN and demands for justice and accountability for him! This appalling situation is widespread and affects every western (former) democracy in the world today.

So let's cut the pretence, shall we? The job of the privately owned mass media including The Guardian (Mr Greenwald) is to 'toe the elite line' and keep the masses fearful, confused and misinformed.

In view of the above stark REALITY, is there any hope? Well of course there is, it's simple and obvious. To illustrate I will place it in the context I learnt this very pragmatic efficient lesson myself.

As a youth I worked numerous and varied jobs around town gaining as much experience as I could. One particular job landed me in with a number of Kiwi Vietnam vets -- please appreciate the anti-war cultural consciousness of the times; in those days the press led the way to justice and peace. One lunch break I rather naively blurted, "how can you kill another human being?" My vet mates were startled by the directness of my question and one of them got particularly agitated and very angry over my remark; the other vet laughed contemptuously and simply said, "I have been asked that question countless times and my answer hasn't varied, "it's easy, you just pull the fuckin' trigger!" His answer shocked me but later I learned to respect it's Zen simplicity and effectiveness.

So, what is the solution for treasonous puppet politicians that serve minority interests today? Shoot them on sight; as the Aussie movie Breaker Morant makes abundantly clear, apply "rule 303," in circumstances where the situation offers no other effective alternative. Treasonous bastards like Cameron, Blair, Bush, Obama, Howard, Gillard, Rudd, Abbott and the rest must be made to pay a price for their treachery and treason. Think about the very Zen uncomplicated solution of the Kiwi vet for a minute, ".. just pull the fuckin' trigger."

Western politicians today must be made aware that lying to the masses, serving minority interests and subverting democracy comes at a very high price! These people are mass murderers and deserve worse than a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head, a bullet in the head .....

It's a matter of perception

Make no mistake, you are not fighting a superpower or State, your target is ONE (1) easily dispatched criminal that serves the evil interests of the Plutocracy. Treasonous politicians that subvert democracy and run errands for unrepresentative minority criminal elites are the easiest to target and dispatch. Eliminating the traitorous errand boys is the surest way to force the faceless ruling plutocrats into the open to be targeted in turn. "Take care of [target] the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves!" Justice and Democracy are restored; indeed, a NATION is SAVED thereby. Simplicity itself!

Advisory note:

The above is an allegorical pedagogic illustration using poetic devices and should not be misconstrued or taken literally by moronic Americans and others that are unable to count past their fingers!
