

Beside Me

international / poetry / post

pushed beyond capacity
ready to drop
i stave off sleep for a few minutes in order to send this message to you

u are welcome anytime
no demands or constraints -
come
lay down beside me, easy remain silent if u wish as ur presence is all i desire

leave the woes of the world outside find refuge in my arms
lay down beside me,
easy

slowly snuggle urself
into the contours of my body into my arms -
u were born
for that position,
so easy

u are the most perfect fit
