

Syria -- The Con is On!

What has just occurred in the Syria crisis? I am referring to the main state of play, think for a minute and if you are one of the few that has retained some reasoning and analytical powers of mind you would, or SHOULD, have noticed a huge STRATEGIC -- that means tactically planned -- SHIFT IN FOCUS.

All of a sudden Obama is no longer out on a limb and the focus of the world's attention; the obvious chemical weapons op, which to this day remains unproven/unsolved, is NO LONGER the FOCUS of the WORLD MEDIA, which is where the FOCUS should REMAIN.

The DISTRACTOR was slipped in by dunce Kerry (the surrender of chem weapons) and bigger dunces -- the nose-ringed global population -- just lapped it up. NOW everyone, including the geniuses that run the 'alternative' media, are fascinated by the argument of 'will he (Assad) or won't he,' surrender his chemical weapons when the FOCUS should have remained on the FALSE FLAG OP and OBAMA taking SOLE responsibility for an illegal, criminal attack!

Once attention has been shifted the rest is easy. (Thinking) readers would note that Obama in his recent address to the nation overtly hinted that chemical weapons would be used again if he didn't act (setting up a future justification/scenario) and allowing him to perpetrate another crime BUT justified by a, 'I told you so!' In the meantime the ruling plutocracy gets away with another illegal regime change and more heinous crimes against humanity.

Putin (part of the scam with his "American partners" [Snowden asylum]) played his part beautifully, sucking everyone in with his op-ed to the NYT. HOWEVER, Putin the scumbag, who ALWAYS ABANDONS HIS ALLIES, p-l-a-y-s the antagonist and gives the impression that he opposes Obama when no real opposition exists, he has ALWAYS allowed western powers to commit the most heinous crimes without so much as directing his missiles at Tel Aviv or New York, he is a bought, corrupt but astute political scumbag who shares in the spoils at the end of the day (Libya).

Also, the implication when focus has been shifted to whether or not Assad will surrender his chemical weapons is that he was responsible for the initial attack when evidence to date, including from UN inspectors, points to extremist rebels as the perpetrators!

This method was used successfully during the Balkan wars in Bosnia/Croatia when the false flag (now proven) mortar attack on civilians at a market -- which gained world wide media attention -- was pinned on the innocent Serbs. This successful operation at the time allowed NATO and Clinton to (illegally) attack -- BUT SURELY SHEEPLE, WE ARE NOT SO STUPID AS TO FALL FOR THE SAME T-R-A-N-S-P-A-R-E-N-T TRICK TWICE OR ALLOW OBAMA OUT OF THE HOT SEAT, OR ARE WE?

The alternative media, without the likes of agents Chomsky and Hedges, should always maintain focus on the most compromising aspects of a story and return the public focus on criminally compromised Obama and the unproven chemical attacks until the entire false flag op is either exposed or Obama is forced to compromise himself further. Good investigative journalism always seeks to REVEAL and EXPOSE the Truth and the REALITY of any critical situation and no alternative outlets should allow themselves to be so EASILY distracted. Give JUSTICE a chance!

Never forget that the USA is the LEADING offender of chemical weapons use in the modern world; Indo-China, Iraq and Iran, deployed directly (USAF) or by proxy, Saddam Hussein! The FACT remains that no proof of the PERPETRATORS in Syria has yet been ESTABLISHED, pictures after the event as Putin states, do not prove or ascertain guilt. However, the established historical FACT remains, America is the world's leading civilian killing, terrorist nation -- Obama is a reprehensible LIAR and servant to the murdering plutocrats, plain to see!

A US missile attack on Syria would carry the same price as every other criminal US attack, dead, innocent civilians -- an American specialty!

If you wish to prevent wars hold KNOWN war criminals in the USA and their Wall St., masters to ACCOUNT; you would establish peace quickly and easily by such an action -- Washington is openly committed to a "permanent/perpetual war" ideology, though it endeavours to disguise that FACT today.
