(The Plutocrat's Lament)

The world has reached saturation point with rogue state America; US 'perpetual war,' is clearly no longer sustainable. What should follow Obama's momentous loss of face over a failed attack on Syria is more nations turning their back on Imperial America; PNAC has not survived a decade let alone a century! The clear lack of international support for Obama spells doom for Zionists and ruling Plutocrats, US global influence is fraying.

Syria was a critical failure of the ruling plutocracy as it's loss thwarts any hope of progressing on to an attack on Iran, which was to be the next target after Syria -- readers should note that these expansionist plans were set down prior to the Bush regime, Obama, like Bush, is just another errand boy for the ruling plutocracy -- watching Obama's failure on Syria is a truly rewarding experience but we should not forget that the ruling plutocracy has no intention of giving up, so be prepared for more lateral attacks.

There comes a time when stale tricks and formula false flag ops become familiar to the global population; those attempting to play charades become known for who and what they are -- psychopathic, mass murdering, thieving criminals that must be held accountable as soon as possible.

Obama's failure to sell his scripted LIES has severely disrupted the ruling elite timetable and once a certain (delay) point is reached the plan must be abandoned in favour of another more feasible approach. But that may never eventuate as the criminals that instruct puppet Obama have justice breathing heavily down their criminal necks.

The strains of the plutocrat's lament are becoming more audible by the day; the shrill refrain of desperation can be heard from every western capital.

To everything there is a season and the season of justice and retribution FAST APPROACHES! Watch the giveaway body language, facial expressions and gestures of every major political figure carefully, as their deceptive performances are showing the strain of serving an evil minority that imagines it possesses viable strategies where none exist!
