

The Un-Scientific American (Moron)

A recent article in the now not so very Scientific American, titled, "Why Is Everyone on the Internet So Angry?" beggars belief -- it's the current ISSUES the world faces, stupid! Let's begin with the first NEEDLESS civilian HOLOCAUST of the 21st century initiated and instigated by AMERICA on behalf of Transnational oil companies. Do we all remember the ORCHESTRATED LIES that led to the invasion of Iraq and the deaths of over one million innocent civilians, for Christ's fuckin' sake? Angry, you'd better believe it, you vile American filth!

"WHY", indeed!

Never have I read a more dissociative piece of diatribe that fails to address the broader context and the MANY critical issues and INJUSTICES of our time than the idiotic piece written by an author that clearly lives in her own private 'Idaho'.

On your home front you have just had a puppet president pass into LAW the most totalitarian, draconian Bill ever passed into law anywhere -- the NDAA 'indefinite detention' on suspicion law. I mean really, madam, what world or vacuum do YOU inhabit writing such a myopic article? Have you no idea why people of conscience are as ANGRY as all hell? How about sociopathic Clinton's recent one-liner, "we came, we saw, he died," admitting responsibility for the proxy assassination of Gaddafi and the ruinous takeover of Libya -- a nation that committed the most grievous 'crime' possible in today's world -- Libya was a DEBT FREE nation, no debt whatsoever to the CRIMINAL INTERNATIONAL BANKER ELITE. Libya had committed the cardinal sin against ruling plutocrats and so its leader had to go and the nation taken over. Now ask yourself, is Libya debt free today, Ms Ignoramus?

How many MORE innocents must you kill before you comprehend that people despise everything American -- including the child killing illegal Drone warfare campaign that continues as I write, the list goes on and on?

Read some of the posts to this site and try to get an idea "WHY" and then, if you dare, emerge from your clearly PATHOLOGICAL American DENIAL syndrome and CONFRONT THE REALITY of the WORLD we live in TODAY, Ms dreamboat , Natalie Wolchover, and then get ANGRY as all hell!

Harness that anger and let it be a DRIVING FORCE FOR REAL POSITIVE CHANGE. Begin to right all the wrongs your corporate controlled nation is responsible for, or SUFFER THE OBVIOUS and INEVITABLE BLOW BACK if you fail to address R-E-A-L-I-T-Y!

Only in America.

Allow me to inform you of a sacrosanct MORAL REALITY that your Christian Saviour Jesus Christ was acutely aware of, you miserable hypocrite; all the money and oil in the universe is not worth the life of one innocent child -- the US continues to murder innocent children adding to the millions already murdered since the criminal Indo-Chinese war -- 500K in Iraq with medical embargos PRIOR to the illegal invasion. Now go straight to hell with Madeleine Albright and the rest, you SICK fuck -- "worth it," indeed!

[Hey, Mister Puppet President, 'YOU won't see it coming' either!]
