The NYT is a well known propaganda outlet for the elite status quo so it is not surprising to see it running more NSA propaganda stories designed to intimidate the public, as criminals and other sub-cultural groups that function in the shadows continue to do so!

Clinton spooked

That's right, doodles, those the authorities pretend to monitor remain outside the traceable dragnet, while the wider American population succumbs to the myths and lies.

Has it ever occurred to anyone out there to question the media rubbish that issues from numerous outlets on a daily basis?

A previous post mentioned that NSA stories were 'beat-ups' and cited the reasons why -- so I will add to that accurate observation with another simple REALITY.

If the NSA was really able to monitor, therefore track undesirable elements, why is every major city in the US flooded with illegal drugs -- is that the measure of police and NSA proficiency?

It seems the NSA is very good at monitoring dunces that volunteer personal info and correct identities but is unable to stem the flow of illegal drugs and other contraband into the country!

I would add to the above exposure with another wobbly propaganda story, the Bin Laden raid, here's the reality on that LIE. Not one skerrick or shred of real evidence exists to support the claim that Bin Laden was killed by a Navy Seal team or any other group of circus performers -- it's PURE FICTION, a story like the NSA global surveillance stories that fail the simplest analysis tests.

So doodles, continue cringing, cowering and believing everything you're told and we'll continue using plain logic and the simple tools of reason to expose the tissue thin lies that emanate from Washington! The obvious fact is, the NSA couldn't find its dick to take a piss -- put it to the test and go outside and score any illegal drug that takes your fancy! Truth hurts, doesn't it, morons?

You want more? 9/11 and the anthrax letters were planned internal ops executed by an extreme group of right wing neo-cons and Mossad, but has the NSA, FBI or CIA discovered who was responsible? NO! Jolly good show, morons! [In actuality they know, simply because they were COMPLICIT, remember, it was the FBI that released the three Israelis (Mossad agents) arrested by the NYPD for dancing when the twin towers collapsed! You didn't find that odd, doodles?]

If you really wish to know the truth, waterboard Cheney, Rumsfeld, Paul Wolfowitz, Richard Perle, Frank Lowy, John Howard or Tony Blair -- to name just a few complicit CRIMINALS; there are many more but every COWARDLY population deserves its government.
