There is no doubt that this and associated stories serve the public interest; it is a very revealing saga and clearly highlights the very soft and vulnerable underbelly of profit-only-driven Corporations and the sociopathic mentalities that run them.

Ian McLeod, corporate sociopath and CEO of Wesfarmers Coles

People should take heart by the example of this Aussie consumer in his/her fight against a corporate giant and be inspired by how easily large corporations are compromised by INDIVIDUALS with traditional Oz values, Aussie nous and never-say-die, Aussie determination.

We urge those interested in this fight to explore the entire body of information as it serves as a guide on how to deal with arrogant and deceptive corporations everywhere.
