

Today's Stark Political Reality

Were you taught that democracy is voting for a party that promises to represent you, the majority, then after gaining office, 'your' party immediately begins to serve minority interests or the big end of town? No, well, either was I!

We were all taught that our vote obliges our representatives to serve the people that voted them into office. Well, it seems we were taught a pack of lies as history records that all western governments are in the pocket of elite minorities that use their influence (money) and media/propaganda apparatuses to corrupt the democratic ideal and install their lying, dishonest, puppets into power to serve elite interests -- call it what you will but that system is clearly not democracy.

Political REALITY, as opposed to the tragic LIES we are CONSTANTLY fed is that we are ruled by dishonest, treacherous, self-serving people and it follows that these treacherous and dishonest people would eventually descend into pure criminality, as has clearly occurred today.

We are left with the stark reality that western governments and their ideological/social apparatuses - including the courts/judiciary -- are thoroughly corrupt; I know, I am stating the obvious, but it is necessary to spell it out at times as many people continue to subscribe to the current flawed model or criminal paradigm.

Very little investigation conducted by anyone that is able to read reveals that we are in fact ruled by a nefarious global PLUTOCRACY!

However, as the criminals in power have traditionally worked in the shadows to achieve their nefarious aims, they have left encoded LAWS largely intact, as they must maintain the appearance that we are living in a democracy, also, these laws developed as a result of revolutionary change in social orders, the modern plutocracy is a relatively recent (approx. 300 years) manifestation.

Now, unsurprisingly Constitutional Law in most western nations adequately deals with instances of corrupt and/or non-representative government AND if nothing else, proving that western governments are unconstitutional/unrepresentative poses no major problem even for first year law students -- everything else flows from the unconstitutional nature of plutocracy and the criminal corruption in high office.

Simply put, "regime change" is illegal; "Drone warfare" is illegal, extra-judicial "kill lists" are illegal; military "occupation" and "resource theft" are illegal; "torture" and "indefinite detention" are clearly illegal, and the list goes on and on! In fact most of the activities our governments engage in today are criminal enterprises, the criminally staged wars over the past decade provide ample evidence of the fact.

So, should we be surprised if from the start WE ALLOWED liars, cheats and deceivers to govern us and remain in office unchallenged, what else should we expect but more criminality, unfairness and devastation?

We should also remind ourselves that all these criminal enterprises and the associated global devastation they cause is for the benefit and increased wealth of a few hundred global elitists/plutocrats that are already staggeringly wealthy.

However, the above situation is clearly untenable, as the billions of people suffering as a result of the policies of this global elite minority will soon wake to the fact and step on these cockroaches like the human vermin they truly are!
