

Australia, America's Lackey Spy Nation in SE Asia

by sal Monday, Nov 25 2013, 11:47pm

international / prose / post

[Canadian journalist] Eric Margolis' factual inaccuracies regarding Oz multi-culturism notwithstanding, he did manage to get the most critical point -- Oz spying on Indonesia for the Americans -- right.

Some recent background information may be useful.

The previous Labor Minister of Defence, Stephen 'kneepads' Smith, stated on the national media that Oz doesn't have any U.S. bases, "we have joint military facilities;" well, call a turd by any other name and it still smells like shit! Smith made this facile and idiotic comment after his PM, known Washington doormat Juliar Gillard, signed over an unprecedented FIVE full scale (nuclear capable) U.S. bases to be constructed on Oz soil without seeking approval from the people -- which may have had something to say about becoming a primary nuclear target (overnight) in the event of a U.S. provoked conflict with China!

Gillard's traitorous servility to Washington did not border on treason HER actions were indefensibly treasonous and CLEARLY against the best interests of the nation and the Australian people -- I raise this issue to illustrate that Washington dictates policy to all spineless Oz governments regardless of political stripe. After Hawke and Keating -- who surrendered our sovereignty/currency to Wall St criminals and rogues -- Oz virtually became another State of the corporate controlled U.S. The shameless and now infamous servility of Howard, Rudd and Gillard to Washington is truly gut turning, notwithstanding that New Zealand AND Indonesia are also under the poisonous, corrupting influence of Washington.

Whichever major party leads Australia it is widely known that both kowtow to Washington's every whim. In fact, opposition PMs go to lengths to see which leader is able to outdo the other in brown-nosing the yanks; John Howard continues to support a 'face tan' courtesy of dubya Bush's rectum. Indeed, our treasonous, custard-faced leaders have a long history of dropping to their knees in the presence of American officials. Conservative former FM, Robert Hill, slobbering around Donald Rumsfeld during his Adelaide visit is enough to make most Aussies puke. However, I should add that the servile characteristic of Oz politicians is NOT shared by the population at large who view the Americans as the contemptible, mass murdering criminals that they CLEARLY are -- unlike the U.S., Oz continues to maintain high standards of public education and social/political awareness.

The latest 'spy scandal' and political posturing by the Indonesians, who have known that Oz has a long history of eavesdropping on their unsecured, 'private' communications, particularly the highly compromising invasion of East Timor, which civilian killing spree was sanctioned by Washington, is purely for the benefit of the local population, which is known to hold Australia/ns in contempt.

Oz possesses damning documentary evidence, obtained from listening to the communications of 'Kopassus' special forces during the invasion of Timor, which includes the now infamous command made by then special forces captain Yunus Yosfiah, "ngak usah pikir tembak aja," which renders into English as, 'don't think, just shoot!' Why his troops hesitated was because they faced five unarmed Australian journalists in Balibo who were subsequently SLAUGHTERED in cold blood! Such is the manifest disdain that Indonesians have for Australians that they would risk international courts and war crimes offences to slaughter unarmed Aussie civilians like dogs.

The next time Mr Margolis accuses racist Aussies of racism he should seek a balanced view and investigate the outrageous anti-occidental racism prevalent in Asian nations -- or perhaps look at the latest Oz census statistics which indicate that Anglo-Aussies are today less than 48% of the total Australian population!

So while Indonesian political 'ballerinas' perform for their masses, Oz PM Abbott makes it clear to the WORLD that he hasn't got a clue about foreign relations or anything else for that matter -- remember that Abbott in his own words is the "suppository" of the nation.

In the circumstances any attempt to fob off the scandal with naive, infantile excuses or steadfastly refusing to apologise, only adds fuel to the campfire. "Everyone spies on everyone," says Abbott. That is hardly news but most leaders are able to ensure that other leaders do not lose face in (Asian) nations where 'face' is at a premium. Abbott's ridiculous remark may warrant intervention from Washington, which is acutely aware how these events have the potential to inflame entire populations.

The most revealing aspect of this current scandal is not the 'spying,' which is hardly news, but the grossly inept behaviour of the new, clearly incompetent, Australian conservative PM, Tony Abbott -- we should not forget that servile political puppets usually make very bad political leaders -- you can't have it both ways, Washington!

Abbott should apologise for spying and then make arrangements for the extradition of the KNOWN Indonesian murderers of the Balibo five to face trial in Oz for their horrendous crimes in East Timor and Balibo.

If it hasn't already occurred, both puppet leaders will be getting a call from Washington in the very near future.

To say that political affairs in the world today are tragically inept and transparent to the extreme would be understatement; Washington should note that the price of Imperialism and International corruption is popular revolts, uprisings and Revolution. O what tangled webs we weave, America! You are your own worst enemy, you supreme dunces.

As for the underground elite we are always ready to foment and ignite revolution; this war will be won with speed, skill and dexterity, qualities you do not possess in abundance. We seize every opportunity to take the 'wheel' and exploit de-stabilised political situations! We can't thank you enough for doing all the heavy lifting, MORONS! All sing together, "I am a yankee doodle dreamboat born on the fourth of July!" And there's nothing you or Israel can effectively do about it.

Every nation or group that has attempted world domination has failed for OBVIOUS reasons -- megalomania is a disease of the pathological mind but please continue in your futile attempts, we are ready to take full control because we are the PEOPLE, of the people, for the people and YOU will ALL hang for your MANY crimes against humanity/the people!

"How does it feel to be on your own, with no direction home, like a complete unknown ..." -- Bob Dylan. It's called exuberance, morons, do you see what we see?

[Yes, we're back!]

<http://www.informationclearinghouse.info/article36961.htm>

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-885.html>