A Lay Down Misère

From a moral and Christian perspective there is no argument, Tony Blair is a brazen liar and mass murderer. From a legal point of view there is no argument, Blair is a known liar, unjustified invader, civilian killer and a lackey for International bankers and Transnational Oil companies. From a ruling elitist criminal point of view Blair is just fine, an exceptional errand boy who did what had to be done to turn a profit, clear the way for Corporate exploitation and facilitate the take-over of resource rich regions.

Receiving a medal from cohort Bush

People of conscience have an opportunity to rally behind Archbishop Tutu and force criminal elites to surrender their puppets to the courts lest they face the wrath of the public and the full force of the law themselves. SUPPORT Tutu in his bid to see justice done. Tutu cannot succeed without public support.

Wake up and fight for YOUR lives
