

Volgograd Attacks linked to Washington via Saudis -- no surprises!

“We control them” (terrorists) bragged inbred moron, Saudi prince Bandar in a heated exchange with Putin. The prince also threatened Russia’s hosting of the Olympics, which ‘could’ be targeted by ‘his’ terrorists. Of course the Saudi royals couldn’t be closer to Washington unless they were literally fucking the administration, which is possible considering Obama’s known homosexual predilections! But not to digress.

I shall not dwell on the Saudi-Washington connection, which is well known, the linked article does an adequate job in that regard, rather, I would highlight the shameless COWARDICE of Russia, especially Putin, since the Balkan intervention where Russia FAILED to support its traditional slav ally, Yugoslavia. In fact the Russian leadership fed Yugoslavia to the dogs for filthy American dollars and still refuses to support Serbia in its LEGAL claims over the stolen province of Kosovo, the ‘legal case’ is easily won by Serbia (with support from a superpower) as all European laws and conventions (including a UN charter) covering sovereign territories support its argument.

We should not forget that after the Balkan intervention, the US installed a known interpol wanted terrorist (Thaci) as puppet PM of Kosovo, a blueprint that would be repeated in Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Libya, Egypt and a number of other African nations.

Why Putin allows himself to be affronted by a bunch of inbred, State sponsored Arab terrorists could only be answered by one word, CORRUPTION! You will soon learn Mr mouse Putin that you can’t have it both ways, you traitorous dog -- if a Serb eliminates you before the Caucasians it would be poetic justice indeed.

Putin also stood by (quivering) while he watched the US/NATO breach UN security council resolutions and demolish debt-free Libya and assassinate Col. Gaddafi. People and other nations do notice leaders that continuously sell out their allies and friends while copping copious amounts of US dollars in their very traceable off-shore accounts, DOG!

With a perfect record of complying with US international gangsterism, Putin could hardly allow Syria to fall considering, his tattered reputation and Syria’s strategic (doorway to Iran) and resource importance.

As anticipated the Saudi’s, Israel and Washington are furious over Putin’s intervention in Syria -- the situation is now entirely out of control as US and Saudi backed terrorists have been ousted by unaffiliated fundamentalist gangsters that have accumulated weapons from the many campaigns they have fought for the US in the past -- blowback!

Today the Syrian intervention is largely lost but anything could happen any time as this is the 21st century of criminal gangster wars and the wholesale theft of other nations’ resources.

So, Putin, you CORRUPT stinking FRAUD and reprehensible COWARD, it’s YOUR MOVE, or kiss your arse goodbye. So many people (not least Russians) want you dead, you won’t have a clue where the bullet or bomb comes from.
