It is almost impossible for the average American to understand and accept the stark reality of what America has become today. After a decade of perpetual, pre-emptive war POLICY -- a crime under international law -- Americans continue to tolerate overt and GROSS criminal conduct by their non-representative, elitist-serving government, which is characterised less by the principles enshrined in the nation's founding documents than by any other government at any other time in American history! But are we surprised by this progression into rampant criminality, NO? Only fools and those deprived of historical information would be shocked at the verifiable REALITY that America is now the WORLD'S LEADING TERRORIST NATION -- an appalling reality for which every American must take responsibility; the very few actively engaged in fighting for the MORAL and LEGAL right, real FREEDOM and TRUE liberty, excepted!

Verifying the terrorist status and homicidal sociopathology of the USA is a very simple matter, as it is on OPEN DISPLAY! One example would be the clear answer to a question put to former Secretary of State Albright regarding the CONSEQUENTIAL deaths of over 500,000 INNOCENT Iraqi children to the embargoes imposed by America on Iraq, which prevented the most basic medical and other critical supplies entering the country -- the result, half a million dead Iraqi children, countless civilian deaths and horrendous hardships BUT NO political advantage gained by America, as the illegal, based on LIES Iraqi INVASION later proved. Albright's infamous answer covered on national TV to the question was the deaths of all those children was "worth it," yes, "we think it was worth it!" Notice the "WE." The next obvious question from the international community would have been, 'worth what, you sick American bastards?'

Now for those that wish to hide behind excuses like Albright made a faux pas, gaffe or bad answer that frail humans habitually make, etc; I would say, HEARKEN TO THE HISTORICAL CONTINUITY of statements and EVENTS since Albright's profoundly sick but revealing admission.

President Obama using the medium of a press conference, coercively threatened (terrorised) some unnamed targets of his Drone -- illegal under every international law on war -- campaign, he said openly, "you won't see it [hellfire missiles] coming" and then continued to describe the horror of such sudden attacks with a malevolent, sick but clearly visible smirk on his sociopathic, servile face!

As if emphasising a continuous hidden agenda, Obama's then Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton, derived great joy and amusement -- again on national TV -- making a clear admission and taking full responsibility for the assassination of Libya's Col. Gaddafi; another illegality the US promised it would not commit at the UN Security Council. Clinton referring to Gaddafi's death blurted, "we came, we saw, he died, ha, ha, ha" and laughed -- this clearly sick sociopath derived great pleasure and mirth from the illegal (are you reading this, Putin?) murder of another national leader.

In literature we call such alignments 'thematic continuity,' however, in a historical context these clear policy alignments are called 'historical REALITY!'

So you see, it matters not whether the vast majority of Americans have their thumbs up their arses and their heads in the sand -- that is a local problem -- the point I would clearly make is that TRUTH and the REALITY is GROSS, OVERT and in diametric opposition to the propaganda that issues from the privately owned U.S. mass media. However, it must also be stated that the international community labours under no illusions, it is extremely aware of the status of the USA as the world's leading civilian killing, terrorist nation and that it is the largest threat to world peace on the planet. That is the current REALITY.

What occurs from here is also historically consistent; the world has never feared or acquiesced to a bully, on the contrary, nations secretly conspire to subvert all imperial power and raze offending bully nations to the ground and/or 'reduce their capitals to ash.'

Historical precedents are many and varied, we hold little (no) hope that Americans will wake in time and remove the overt sociopaths and criminals from power and RESTORE, Justice and Democracy to their nation -- 'kill lists, warrantless intrusions and indefinite detention on suspicion,' give sanity, morality and CIVILISATION a break!

The future is not mysterious, the writing is on the wall, in the text, in culture and on every other medium that makes itself available for analysis -- put simply so 'Joe 6 pack' can understand, 'America, due to your abysmal failure to maintain moral, legal and ideological integrity, you've totally fucked yourself!

The forces that are sure to destroy the USA increase in strength with each degree that America separates from or denies R-E-A-L-I-T-Y; that chasm grows wider every day.
